Miss Kathy Elaine Zimpelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zimpelman, of Route 9, Huntington, became the bride of Robert Lynn Morton Monday night at 7 p.m. in the Salem Methodist Church at Ijamsville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morton of Route 1, Huntington.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Clayton Kendall, organist, and the Rev. Clayton Kendall, vocalist. The Rev. Kendall also officiated for the double-ring vows, and baskets of white flowers and palms formed the background for the ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white satin fashioned with oval-neckline appliqued with roses and long sleeves tapering to points. Bows accented the front and back of the waistline, and the bell-shaped skirt designed with box pleats was highlighted with a chapel-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a matching headpiece, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations accented with pink sweetheart roses entwined with green ivy. Her pearl-drop earrings and necklace were gifts of the bridegroom.

Miss Patty Grace of Route 9, Huntington was maid of honor in a floor-length gown of nile green satin styled with bell-shaped skirt with box pleats and oval neckline designed like the bride's. She wore white pearl earrings and necklace, gifts of the bride, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations arranged like that of the bride's. Both gowns and headpieces were made by the bride.

Robert Horrell of Route 9, Huntington was best man, and James Morton, brother of the groom, Route 1, Huntington, and Gene Zimpelman, cousin of the bride, Route 6, Rochester, were ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a light aqua sheath for her daughter's wedding, and the groom's mother wore a light blue sheath. Both mothers wore matching accessories and corsages.

The reception was held in the church parlors and 75 guests were served by Miss Sharon Fruitt, Miss June Ann Zimpelman and Miss Wilberta Kramer.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton were both graduated from Clear Creek High School. Mr. Morton has been employed at the Kresge Warehouse, but will enter military service June 2, and will be stationed at Seattle, Wash. Their future residence will be Route 8,

Angela and Riyaz Thawer

Ziegler-Thawer 2001

Angela J. Ziegler and Riyaz Thawer were married July 1 on the terraces of the Foellinger-Freiman Botanical Conservatory in Fort Wayne. Rev. Howard Tyner, great-uncle of the bride's late husband, officiated the double-ring ceremony. Music was provided by Joe Thomas, pianist.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Leonard Bonner, and Rex Ziegler, father of her late husband. She wore an ivory sleeveless floor-length gown featuring a sweetheart neckline and a heavily beaded bodice accented with rhinestones which flowed to the brush train of the A-line skirt. She wore a tiara in her hair and a gold necklace and earrings which were sent to her from the groom's parents in London, England. She also wore a diamond- and crystal-accented watch with a mother-of-pearl dial on one wrist and a diamond tennis bracelet on the other. The watch and bracelet were gifts from the groom. She carried a nosegay of ivory roses and mixed summer flowers designed by Cynthia Wehr.

Arlene Keplinger, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a deep ivory satin finish camisole-style gown accented by rhinestone roping which enhanced the bodice and coverup jacket. She carried a nosegay similar to the bride's. Ashley Nicole Ziegler, daughter of the bride, was the flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Scott E. Ziegler

Guests each released a live painted lady butterfly from special pyramids which were brought in from California for the occasion as the couple approached them. The significance behind releasing live butterflies comes from an old Native American legend that says: "To make a wish come true, whisper it to a butterfly. Upon these wings it will be taken to heaven and granted, for butterflies are messengers of the great spirit."

A reception at the botanical conservatory followed the ceremony. Music was provided by Mega Sound of Fort Wayne.

The couple chose a wedding trip to Las Vegas and is planning a trip to London, England, in the near future.

The bride graduated from Huntington North High School. She is a homemaker and had formerly owned Angela's House of Flowers. Her parents are Leonard and Jean Ann Bonner, Huntington.

The groom earned a master's degree in marital and family therapy from the University of Brussels in Belgium. Dear Folks, Glad to hear you ~~were doing~~ but it didn't rain so your photo ~~were doing~~ ~~nicely~~ out. I like it here the food is fine and I leave the dishes I could be home if I had some one to care for me. Have arthritis in my knees and I can do more for that at home than they do here. I get around with a walker, have my radio here but it bothers my roommate and there is TV but I don't watch it. Love Nora

Glad you found good. Am writing and reading with out glasses. I'm thankful for that. Love Nora
