

Lyle F. Albright

May 3, 1921 to Dec. 27, 2011

Jeanette M. Albright

Feb, 22, 1922 to May 26,2008

Relationship to St. Andrew United Methodist Church: Lyle and Jeanette were long-time member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church. They supported the Community Ministries program, as well as the youth of the church. Jeanette was a mentor to youth and enabled many to attend camp or other youth events. Lyle delighted members of all ages with his magic shows.

Jeanette:

Family: Jeanette was born in Hekelinger, Netherlands. She married Lyle F. Albright on March 4, 1949. Surviving Jeanette is her husband and two daughters: Christine L. Albright (husband Lawrence Gill) from Chicago and Diane Albright from St. Louis, MO. Also, surviving are three grandchildren: Cynthia Gill, Pamela McCullough and Brian Gill and six great-grandchildren.

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests: Before her marriage, Jeanette received her Bachelor of Science in education degree from Wittenburg University and Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan. She taught in Ohio and Michigan. In Lafayette, she was involved with Planned Parenthood, the Lafayette Urban Ministry and the League of Women Voters. She enjoyed teaching, gardening, sewing, home construction, reading, traveling, and study of current events.

Use of Funds: Family has requested funds be distributed among the Crossroads Youth Ministry, (funds used toward purchase of new soundboard for the Crossroads Intersection), the Landscape efforts, and the Funeral dinner fund.

Crosswords Sound Board

Lyle:

Family: Lyle was born in Bay City, Michigan. He received undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Michigan before marrying Jeanette in 1950.

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests: Lyle worked for Dow Chemical Co in Michigan and DuPont de Nemours and Co., before working on the Manhattan Project for production of plutonium at Hanford, Washington from 1944- 46. From 1955 until his death, he was a professor of Chemical Engineering at Purdue, receiving the emeritus status in 1991. He served on the board of directors for the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, was a member of the Speakers Bureau and accreditation team visitor to ten Chemical Engineering schools. Lyle was a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians since 1937. He was a swimmer, sailor and gardener.

Use of Funds: The funds were used for the construction of the picnic shelter.

May 29, 2008

Jeanette M. Albright, 86

Jeanette M. Albright, 86, of West Lafayette, died at 7:25 p.m. Monday, May 26, 2008, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Born Feb. 22, 1922, in Hekelinger, Netherlands, she was the daughter of the late Gerrit VanBelle and Gertrude Bakker Misner.

She received her Bachelor of Science in education from Wittenburg University and Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan.

She married Lyle F. Albright on March 4, 1949. He survives.

Mrs. Albright taught in Ohio and Michigan before her marriage.

She was a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church and was involved with Planned Parenthood, Lafayette Urban Ministry and the League of Women Voters. She enjoyed teaching, gardening, home construction, reading, traveling, current events and sewing.

Surviving with her husband are daughters, Christine L. Albright (husband: Lawrence Gill) of Chicago and Diane Albright of St. Louis, Mo.; and sisters, Stella Springer of Lake Stevens, Wash., and Eleanor Daly of Warren, Mich.

Memorial service 10 a.m. Monday, June 2, 2008, at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, 4703 N. County Road 50 W., West Lafayette. Surviving are 3 grandchildren, Cynthia Gill (husband: Colin Haller), Pamela McCullough (husband: Christopher), Brian Gill (wife: Tonya), and great-grandchildren, Darby, Una, Lauren, Caroline, Riley Sue, Connor. A brother, Garrett VanBelle, and her stepfather, Clarence Misner, preceded in death. Memorials to Lafayette Urban Ministry, 525 N. Fourth St., Lafayette, IN 47901, St. Andrew United Methodist Church, 4703 N. County Road 50 W., West Lafayette, IN 47906 or Planned Parenthood of Indiana Inc., 200 S. Meridian, Indianapolis, IN 46206 Arrangements by Soller-Baker Funeral Home. www.soller-baker.com

Journal & Courier Obituary February 16, 2011

Lyle Frederick Albright, 89, of West Lafayette, died at 1:35 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 27, 2010, at Westminster Health Care.

Born May 3, 1921, in Bay City, Mich., he was the son of the late William and Isabel Sidebotham Albright. He graduated from Bay City High School and received a B.S.E. in 1943, M.S. in 1944 and Ph.D. in 1950, all from the University of Michigan.

On March 4, 1950, he married Jeanette VanBelle in Ann Arbor, Mich., and she died May 25, 2008.

Mr. Albright worked for Dow Chemical Co., in Midland, Mich., from 1939 to 1941; E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., Manhattan Project for production of plutonium, at Hanford, Wash., from 1944 to 1946; Colgate-Palmolive Co., Jersey City, N.J., from 1950 to 1951. He then consulted with many companies.

From 1955 until his death he was professor of chemical engineering at Purdue University, making emeritus status in May 1991. Prior to coming to Purdue University, he was on the ChE faculty at the University of Oklahoma from 1951 to 1955. He also was a visiting professor at University of Texas in 1952 and Texas A&M in 1985. During those years, he directed more than 110 graduate students and eight post-doctoral individuals. His scholarly contributions included some 231 articles in archival journals and a recently published 2009 book, "Albright's Chemical Engineering Handbook."

He was a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church; American Institute of Chemical Engineers since 1948, serving on the board of directors; Speakers Bureau; and accreditation visitor to 10 ChE schools.

Mr. Albright was a magician and member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians since 1937. He was a swimmer, sailor, and vegetable and fruit gardener.

Surviving are his daughters, Christine Albright (husband: Lawrence Gill) of Chicago, Ill., and Diane Albright of Crestwood, Mo.

Also surviving are three grandchildren, Cynthia Gill, Pamela McCullough and Brian Gill; six great-grandchildren, Darby and Una Haller, Lauren and Caroline McCullough, Riley Sue and Connor Gill; nephews, Bernard, Christopher and Lewis Albright, Matthew and Morgan Springer, Erin and Sean Daly; a niece Leslie Choate; and sisters-in-law, Stella Springer and Eleanor Daly. Preceded in death by brothers Bernard and Wayne Albright, and sister Bernice Albright.

Memorial service will be 2 p.m. Sunday at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, West Lafayette. In lieu of flowers the family is requesting donation be given to Lafayette Urban Ministry, American Diabetes Association, St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Leave condolences at www.soller-baker.com

The Picnic Shelter completed July 2013