One of Peggy's favorite poems:

"If nobody smiled and nobody cried and nobody helped us along,
If every moment looked after itself and good always went to the strong,
If nobody thought just a little about you and nobody cared about me,
And we stood all alone, in the battle of life, what a dreary world this would be.

Life is sweet, just because of the friends we have made
And the things which in common we share.
We want to live on, not because of ourselves
But because of the people who care.

It is doing and giving for somebody else
On which all life's splendor depends,
And the joy of this world, when you've summed it all up,
Is found in the making of friends."
