

Clarence A. Pound
March 20, 1904 to Nov. 14, 1964

Henrietta A. (Hein) Pound
April 17, 1899 to July 22, 1990

Relationship to St. Andrew: Clarence and Henrietta were charter members of the St. Andrew EUB. They were deeply involved with the construction of St. Andrew.

Family: The Pounds were married on Aug. 4, 1927 and they had two daughters, Mrs. Lynn (Jeanne) Guse and Mrs. F. Lynn (Jane) Cason.

Recognitions: Dr. Pound was a teacher and educator who traveled widely consulting with school administrators. Mrs. Pound was also a teacher and volunteered at Home Hospital after retiring.

Memorial Uses: The first hymnals at St. Andrew were partly funded by their memorials.

Prof. Pound Dies of Heart Attack at Home

Prof. Clarence A. Pound, 60, of 1415 Ravinia Rd., West Lafayette, died at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in his home. He apparently suffered a heart attack while in his yard.

He was born near Terre Haute, and married Henrietta Hein in Madison, Wis., in 1927. He was assistant head of the Department of Education at Purdue University.

Prof. Pound was a member of St. Andrew EUB Church, and the Lafayette Rotary Club.

He received his B.S. degree from Indiana State Teachers College; M.A. from the University of Chicago; and Doctor of Education from Indiana

He served as a teacher in the Vigo County schools from 1924-28; principal in the same system from 1928-36; Vigo County superintendent, 1936-48; and professor at Indiana State College, 1936-48.

Prof. Pound came to Purdue in 1948 as assistant professor. In 1951, he was named associate professor; in 1962, acting executive assistant, and was made professor of education in 1963. He also was instructor at Indiana University in the summer session of 1946; visiting professor Michigan State University summer of 1955; and visiting lecturer at the University of Wisconsin in the summer of 1958.

He held membership in many professional and honorary societies including Phi Delta Kappa, National Society for the Study of Education; Indiana State Teachers Association; National Education Association, and American Association of Professors of School Administration.

Other posts include member at large, Board of Managers, Indiana Congress of Parents and Teachers; American Association of School Administrators; executive committee of Department of Rural Education, NEA; National Commission on the study of Intermediate School Districts; Rural Service, Indiana Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Prof. Pound received the Alumni Distinguished Service Award from Indiana State College in 1963; and one year earlier, had made a study of the organization and administration of education in Western Europe and Russia.

Surviving with the widow are two daughters, Mrs. Lynn Guse of Boynton Beach, Fla., and Mrs. F. Lynn Cason Jr. of Rochester, N.Y.; two brothers, Everett Pound of Terre Haute and Edgar of Scottsdale, Ariz.; and a sister, Mrs. Fred Armstrong of Terre Haute.

HENRIETTA A. HEIN POUND, 91, of Westminster Village, died there July 22.

A native of Terre Haute, she was born Sept. 17, 1908, coming to Lafayette in 1948.

She was married on Aug. 4, 1927, in Madison, Wis., to Clarence A. Pound, and he preceded her in death on Nov. 16, 1964. He was a professor at Purdue University.

A teacher at Glenn High School in Terre Haute before coming to Lafayette, she completed her bachelor's degree in education from Indiana State University and did additional studying at the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Pound was a charter member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church. She was a member of Purdue Women's Club, Twentieth Century Book Club and Home Hospital Pink Ladies, and she also sewed for the hospital.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. F. Lynn (Jane) Cason of West Lafayette and Mrs. Lynn (Jeanne) Guse of Greenfield.

Private family service July 24. Interment Tippecanoe Memory Gardens.

Hippenstein funeral directors in charge of arrangements.