

Charles W. Toman
Aug. 31, 1903 to July 4, 1984

Osie Ices Gatten Toman
July 22, 1908 to Feb. 27, 2003

Relationship to St. Andrew: Charles and Osie joined St. Andrew in 1960. Charles was a Past Trustee for St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Osie was very active in United Methodist Women in her younger years. Prior to joining St. Andrew they had belonged to the Weaver Chapel United Methodist Church where Osie's grandfather had served as Pastor for many years. Here Osie had taught Sunday School classes for both the junior and senior high school students. She was an accomplished singer and frequently was a soloist at weddings.

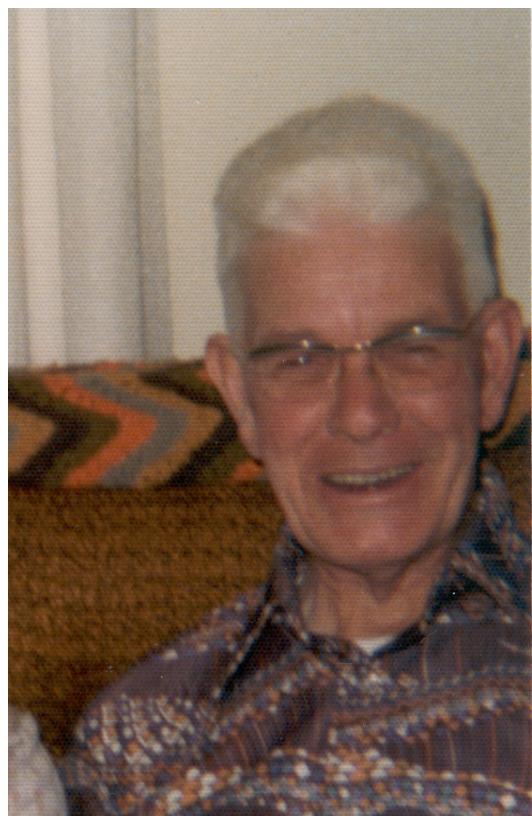

Family: Charles and Osie Gatten had been married fifty-eight years when he died. They had two children, Mrs. Lois Taylor and L. Dean Toman. There were 12 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, 28 great-great-grandchildren, 11 step-great-grandchildren and 25 step-great-great-grandchildren. Preceding in death was a grandson and a great-grandson.

Recognitions: Charles was employed by Graves Bakery for fifty years. Osie worked as a clerk at the S.S. Kresege store for 29 years, retiring in 1974. She also was a political activist, being the Republican Committeeman for Wabash Township.

Osie's daughter, Lois Taylor said, "Osie was privileged to be born to a Christian home, raised Christian and she raised her family to be Christian. She set a fine example for her many descendants of how Christ would have us live."

Memorials: Gifts for Charles were placed in the General Memorial Fund and the Family purchased the First Memorial Book in his honor. Gifts for Osie were also placed in the General Memorial Fund. Some were allocated to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund as requested by Osie. Choir music was also purchased in her memory.
